

Adult Learning Committee

of screen shots captured on PowerPoint slides. The committee had the following recommendations:

- , Justin suggested separating the course designator from the course number as a data management best practice. Currently the course field contains both data elements,