

Upon complet on of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

1. Examine career paths to becoming licensed as an architect in the United States and the range of available career opportunities that utilize the discipline's skills and knowledge.

2.

- Foster pract ces of social equity and inclusion to develop deepened understandings of diverse cultural and social contexts and translate these understandings into built environments that equitably support and include people of different backgrounds, resources, and abilities.
- 9. Apply knowledge of the impact of the built environment on human health, safety, and welfare in the built environment at mult ple scales, from buildings to cities, to make informed design decisions within architectural projects, while prioritizing the well-being of part cipants and communities.
- 10. Develop ef ect ve technical knowledge required to ident fy and describe the established and emerging systems, technologies, and assemblies of building construct on, and use appropriate methods and criteria to assess those technologies against the design, economics, and performance object ves of projects.
- 11. Apply design synthesis apt tudes toward holist c design-thinking, problem-solving, and performance-based decision-making within architectural projects while demonstrating the synthesis of user requirements, regulatory requirements, site conditions, accessible design, and consideration of measurable socio-environmental impacts.