

	College of Computing and Software Engineering
	Information Technology - Graduate
	Enterprise IT Management, Certificate

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

1. Apply policy and law, system management, and development into the enterprise industry.
2. Develop a solid foundation in industrial standards, best practices, and applications in enterprise IT management areas.