

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate practical fluency in Calculus and Linear Algebra.
2. Communicate mathematical ideas using proper mathematical language and notation.
3. Demonstrate mathematical modeling and problem-solving strategies from self-selected field of mathematics, including applied mathematics or more theoretical areas of mathematics.