
Appendix A: Cost Designators for Required Materials in USG Course Schedules:

The following document is posted on the Affordable Learning Georgia website:

<https://www.affordablelearninggeorgia.org/>

campus bookstore's site and messaging students about their choices before the term begins.
What if I do not require any texts or commercial materials for my course?	What if I am unsure about the cost of my materials?
AN qualify for the $0 designation if no commercial materials or texts are the purposes of these cost designations, it does not matter if you are using my course have any textbook or publisher-related costs. If the meets the no-cost designation. If the meets the low-cost designation.	Your course C required. For t instructor cre library materials. Apply the question: does related costs? If the answer is no, the course answer is yes, but $40 or less, the course m
What if I am still unsure about whether my course meets the no-cost or low-cost designation?	What should I be doing?
are still unsure about whether your course meets the no-cost or low-cost designation, contact your bookstore for guidance. If you are still unsure, contact your department chair or dean for assistance.	Administration Raise awareness outreach
What information is being reported?	Faculty
regarding this change within your institution, both for faculty reporting channels.	If your sched depart design
Department Chairs and Deans	Faculty
Work with your faculty and staff to develop processes to collect this information from your department. Faculty should be responsible for providing information to the department chair or dean. Department chairs and deans should be responsible for providing information to the institution.	Faculty If your sched depart design
Information Collection	Faculty
Work with your faculty and staff to develop processes to collect this information from your department. Faculty should be responsible for providing information to the department chair or dean. Department chairs and deans should be responsible for providing information to the institution.	Faculty If your sched depart design

