

TRANSLATION ASSURANCE

This form must be filled out and submitted to the IRB Office (and/or attached to the application in Cayuse) for all studies requiring translated documents. This Translation Assurance form must be submitted to attest to the IRB that the translation from English to the applicable language is accurate. Those who translate the research materials must provide a brief description of their qualifications for carrying out this role.

It is acceptable for members of the research team or others fluent in the appropriate language to translate the research materials (e.g., recruitment, informed consent form(s), and instruments) into languages other than English. A
